

Prayer Space

In order for something divine to be cradled and born in us, we seek, during Advent, to be as Mary was before the birth of Christ – believing, waiting, praying, inviting the Holy Spirit to work within us.

Prayers

Come, Wisdom, Breath of the Most High, Bough of creation, permeating all that lives with the birth pangs of suffering love, come and teach us your ways. Maranatha, come, redeeming Lord.

Come, Morning Star, bright Sun of Justice, bring light to all who are in the darkness of ignorance or self-will. Come and bring us eternal light. Maranatha, come, redeeming Lord.

Come, Cornerstone of the new world to be built. You formed us of the one earth, you make opposing peoples one. Come and save us from destruction. Maranatha, come, redeeming Lord.

Come, Emmanuel, God with us. Wonderful Counsellor, you understand all people, you are the Hope of all nations, come to live among us. Maranatha, come, redeeming Lord.

*Help us to prepare a way for you
by our thoughtfulness towards others,
by our care in little deeds,
by our upholding of the oppressed,
by our thoughtful use of things,
by our care of crops and kitchens,
by our upholding of creation.*
